MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Request of Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.) to Meet with the Director of Central Intelligence

    1.   This memorandum is for information only.

    2.   At Senator Jackson's request, I met with him this morning.
He indicated that he would like to have an informal discussion with the Director of Central Intelligence to discuss the role of intelligence in the policy making process. He described the information he wished as the general over-all picture more or less in line with the discussion he held with you earlier. He pointed out that he would like to discuss the U-2 incident only insofar as its procedural and policy coordination aspects were concerned.

    3.   Senator Jackson emphasized that he did not want to go into substantive matters with you and wanted to conduct the discussion in such a way as not to cause inappropriate publicity. Therefore, he has suggested that he drop down to see you bringing only some of his staff assistants. These would include Kenneth Mansfield (Staff Director), Dorothy Fosdick and a new member, Brewster Denny, recently resigned from NSA. The Senator will provide later in the day a list of specific points he would like you to cover in the discussion.

    4.   The suggested time of two o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Friday, 3 June, is agreeable with the Senator.
